5 Bedroom, 7.00 Bathroom, 5,619 sqft

Residential on 0.10 Acres

ALYS BEACH, Inlet Beach, FL

Set on a premier corner homesite in Alys Beach, this 5,619-square-foot custom residence offers three stories of thoughtfully designed living, dual rooftop terraces, and expansive views of the Gulf of Mexico beginning from the second floor. Designed by acclaimed architecture firm Chancey Design Group, the home embraces a serene, tonal aesthetic inspired by its coastal setting, with soft whites, warm neutrals, and sand-hued finishes that echo the natural palette of Alys Beach. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the residence features five bedrooms plus a custom bunk room with morning bar, five full bathrooms with dual vanities, two powder rooms, two primary suites, a private study, and elevator access to every level. The open-concept main living area is anchored by a professional-grade kitchen supported by both a butler's pantry and a separate owner's pantry. The kitchen opens to the dining and living spaces, where a wet bar adds another layer of functionality for entertaining. French doors connect the interiors to a private courtyard with a pool, spa, fountain, covered loggia, and summer kitchen. On the third level, a spacious game room with its own wet bar opens to both north- and south-facing rooftop terraces, creating multiple outdoor living areas with Gulf and community views. Located approximately 350 yards from the Alys Beach Club & Restaurant and just moments from the Town Center this completed residence combines expansive Gulf views, exceptional indoor and outdoor living, and a premier corner location within one of the Gulf Coast's most sought-after communities.
